

UTI Foundation Wells Fargo Technical Scholarship Information Sheet

The Wells Fargo Technical Scholarship was established to help deserving students fulfill their dream and attend any UTI campus to receive a first class technical education. Wells Fargo believes every child and adult has the right to receive a quality education. We are pleased to continue that tradition and to support new UTI students with these scholarships.

Objective:

To help deserving students attend any UTI campus to receive the technical education they need to follow their passion and pursue successful careers. The $3,000 tuition grants-in-aid will assist in funding a portion of their education.

Criteria for awarding the scholarship:

Future students who meet all other admissions requirements for Universal Technical Institute programs and ALL the criteria below may apply for a $3,000 grant-in-aid (applied to the student's tuition, prorated over the entire term of the student's program). There are limited funds for this tuition scholarship during the funded period. To be eligible, a student must:

1. Have a completed and approved Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the appropriate year. (For questions on the completion or approval of your FAFSA, call the UTI Financial Aid Department at 1-866-609-6930.)
2. Be enrolled to begin courses during one of the start dates between November 1, 2008 and July 31, 2009.
3. Clearly express how s/he shares the passion for cars, trucks, motorcycles or boats and how the scholarship will enable them to begin their education and contribute to the service repair industry.
4. Submit a letter of recommendation from an employer, guidance counselor or instructor.
5. Submit the completed application by the deadline date of either Jan 31, 2009 or April 30, 2009 or July 31, 2009.

Process and Rules:

Information regarding this scholarship will be posted on the UTI Foundation website (www.utifoundation.net) and linked to the UTI Corporate website.

Any student meeting the criteria may apply. Students will complete an application including essay, along with a letter of recommendation and submit it to the UTI Foundation. Students who apply and meet all requirements will be considered for this grant-in-aid. Determinations of who will receive the award will be based on a complete review of all applications received prior to the deadline.

Of those applications received, each will be reviewed for completeness and authenticity of all information provided. Of those viable applications, the awards will be distributed to those students who present the greatest commitment to benefiting the service technician industry through the ideas expressed in the essay portion of the application. All viable applications will be reviewed by the UTI Foundation. Applicants will be notified via U.S. mail after deadline date.

The UTI Foundation does not discriminate against or tolerate the harassment of any potential applicant, applicant or student on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, disability, age, or any other legally protected status in the provision of its courses, programs, services or activities.

The numbers of awards are limited. This program may be altered or discontinued at any time at the discretion of the UTI Foundation.
